MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT
BURNABY—NEW WESTMINSTER

Dear neighbours,

As Member of Parliament for Burnaby-New Westminister, I am working hard for policies and programs that will build a better Canada and foster a society that is diverse, vibrant and inclusive for Canadian families. A Canada where children have clean air, clean water and quality education, where seniors have better care and dignity, where new Canadians have the policies and programs that will allow them to realize their potential. A Canada where we protect our planet, secure our homes and our communities, respect workers' rights and commit to civil liberties and equality.

I want to reaffirm my commitment to work with all residents of Burnaby-New Westminister to build a stronger community.

I am honoured to represent the community of Burnaby-New Westminister in Canada's national Parliament and I will keep on doing everything that I can to ensure that your voice is heard in Ottawa.

On July 1, 2012, join us in Burnaby-New Westminister to celebrate Canada's 145th birthday.

See you this Canada Day!

Tom Mulcair: fighting for you

Our party is entering an exciting new chapter. After an invigorating leadership race that saw a record number of Canadians flock to our party, Tom Mulcair has been elected leader of the Official Opposition—and leader of Canada's New Democrats.

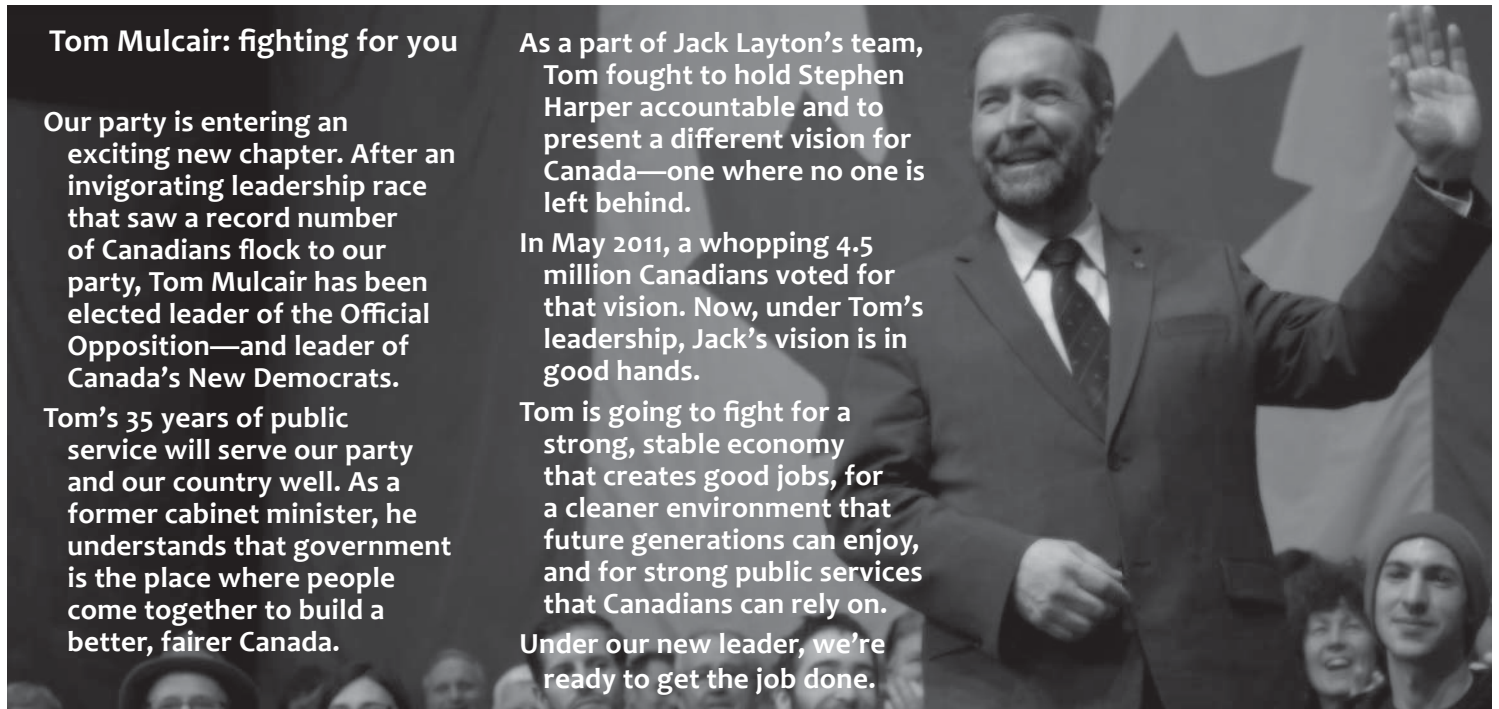

Tom's 35 years of public service will serve our party and our country well. As a former cabinet minister, he understands that government is the place where people come together to build a better, fairer Canada.

As a part of Jack Layton's team, Tom fought to hold Stephen Harper accountable and to present a different vision for Canada—one where no one is left behind.

In May 2011, a whopping 4.5 million Canadians voted for that vision. Now, under Tom's leadership, Jack's vision is in good hands.

Tom is going to fight for a strong, stable economy that creates good jobs, for a cleaner environment that future generations can enjoy, and for strong public services that Canadians can rely on.

Under our new leader, we're ready to get the job done.

Speak out on the Conservative budget

Conservative budget bill: bad for our health

Stephen Harper is hoping you won't notice.

Tucked away in his massive budget implementation bill are hundreds of pages of new measures that will affect everything from how you retire to how our government functions. But instead of letting Parliament fully debate these changes, his Conservatives are trying to sneak them through.

Certainly, they don't want to talk about how they are undermining public health care. How they are short-changing provinces of the funds they need to modernize frontline services. Or how they are even ready to risk the safety of our food supply.

This Trojan Horse of a budget bill will:

- shortchange cash-strapped provinces of expected health transfers by $31 billion;
- weaken food and drug regulations at the discretion of the Minister of Health;
- end vital Auditor General oversight of the Canadian Food Inspection Agency;
- pave the way for private contractors to perform food inspections.

New Democrats know these changes matter to Canadians, and need to be debated. That's why we're holding budget review sessions across the country and fighting to ensure your voice is heard.

PETER IN THE HOUSE - on Budget 2012

We see in the budget systematic cuts to services Canadian families depend on, cuts to food safety, transportation safety and the environmental protections that Canadians feel so strongly about.

We see nothing that deals with the myriad of crises that Canadian families are facing: records levels of debt, lower incomes, as the government has made most Canadian families poorer and poorer through the erosion of real wages, and the incredible and ongoing employment crisis. We have seen 50,000 lost jobs up until March 28 and will see another 50,000 or 60,000 lost jobs as a result of this budget.

Canadians who witnessed those commitments and who voted because they believed that the Prime Minister would keep those commitments are feeling betrayed by this budget.
